Vincent J. Naimoli

Managing General Partner and Chief Executive Officer

The man who secured Tampa Bay's long-awaited Major League Baseball franchise on March 9, 1995, continues to work as hard as anyone to build a championship team.

Taking the torch from a long line of community leaders, in 1991 Naimoli accepted the challenge of bringing the National Pastime to the region. Summoning the grit and problem-solving savvy that took him from a humble start in Paterson, N.J., to an NROTC scholarship at Notre Dame, two master's degrees, the engineering and business worlds, and legendary status as a corporate turnaround specialist, he rallied civic and financial backers to the baseball cause. Naimoli had the ticket-buying public behind him, too, and on March 31, 1998, a $250-million-a-year economic entity began play at Tropicana Field.

Naimoli forged a naming-rights deal with Tropicana Products that will enable St. Petersburg to receive payments of more than $13 million over the life of the contract, and he and fellow Rays owners paid for improvements at The Trop and the club's spring stadium, Progress Energy Park, Home of Al Lang Field. He insisted that Tropicana Field's design reflect baseball traditions, among them asymmetrical outfield dimensions, seats close to the action, and dirt base paths. Ever the engineer, he let innovation enhance that traditional feel by arranging the purchase of a revolutionary grasslike playing surface, FieldTurf, for the air-conditioned dome before the 2000 season, earning unanimous approval from the league, players, fans and media. Old-time details blend with modern comforts to create a stadium ranked second in the majors by a group of fans who watched games at every one on their 30 Ballpark Millennium Tour.

While building a franchise from within, Naimoli also has focused on the game's welfare. In addition to serving on MLB committees, he was named in January 1999 to the Blue Ribbon Task Force on Baseball Economics, whose recommendations addressed longstanding problems.

On May 8 of this year, he will be inducted into the National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame along with fellow inductees Dan Marino, John Calipari and Frank Viola

As CEO of Anchor Industries International, Naimoli was voted 1995 Florida Entrepreneur of the Year in the "turnaround" category. In 1999 he joined former First Lady and current Senator Hillary Clinton, Senator John Glenn and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court William Rehnquist in receiving the Ellis Island Medal of Honor from the National Ethnic Coalition of Organizations. He also has served on financial and athletic committees at alma mater Notre Dame, as well as serving as Chairman of the Notre Dame College Business Administration Advisory Council. In addition, he chaired the University of Tampa Board of Trustees, and serves on the board at Fairleigh Dickinson University, where he earned an M.B.A. magna cum laude before completing Harvard Business School's advanced management program in 1974. In the community, Naimoli has received numerous honors for service, including the first Bridging the Bay Award, in 1996.

One of four children of a second-generation Italian immigrant who worked for the New York subway system and became a self-taught stationary engineer, Naimoli graduated from Notre Dame in 1959 out of Paterson Central High School. He still attends Fighting Irish football games with his wife, Lenda, who retired as an Eastern Airlines flight attendant after 24 years and who has an identical twin, Mrs. J.E. (Glenda) Young. He has four daughters — Christine, an Arizona State graduate; Tory Ann Jarvis, Stephens College and Kellogg Graduate School alumna; Alyson, a Notre Dame graduate; and Lindsey, currently matriculating at Notre Dame — and three Jarvis grandchildren: Jack Burke, Matthew Vincent and William Joseph.

Chuck LaMar

Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager

While the charter members of the American League East shared the national spotlight during the winter with their pursuit of baseball's highest priced stars, Chuck LaMar quietly went about his business of developing baseball's youngest team with careful, economically sound decisions.

First he traded for Tampa native Tino Martinez to play first base. Then he added 2003 Gold Glove winner Jose Cruz to the outfield, brought Rey Sanchez, Geoff Blum, Eduardo Perez and Robert Fick, to lend depth, added starting pitchers Damian Moss, Mark Hendrickson, John Halama and Paul Abbott and relievers Danny Baez and Trevor Miller.

Even more importantly, LaMar signed the 2003 Most Valuable Devil Ray Aubrey Huff to a three-year $14.5 contract.

"Dollar for dollar," wrote the St. Petersburg Times, "the Rays may have had the best off-season in the majors."

At the minor league level, too, LaMar's acquisitions were purcolating. Delmon Young, the first selection in the 2003 June draft and B.J. Upton the Rays first pick in 2002, were selected the top two prospects in the talent-laden Arizona Fall League which Baseball America described as what could have been billed as a future Devil Rays prospect showcase.

LaMar begins his ninth season with the Rays, always placing a heavy emphasis on scouting and player development. He has assembled an experienced and respected baseball operations staff and has led them through eight amateur drafts in addition to the expansion draft.

As testament to his scouting acumen, LaMar was named to the selection committee for the 2000 United States Olympic Gold-Medal-wining team and to the advisory committee for the 2000 Major League Futures All-Star Game. The previous year he was named to the Pan Am Games Selection Committee.

Chuck has been a leader in the community as well. The Chuck LaMar Mercury Marine Grand Slam Celebrity Fishing Tournament, contested the past six Novembers in the waters off St. Petersburg, has raised more than $750,000 for the Tampa-based Pediatric Cancer Foundation. LaMar has been involved in a number of other local charities, including the YMCA, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Tampa Bay, Clearwater for Youth and the Suncoast Children's Dream Fund.

LaMar came to the Rays shortly after the franchise's founding in 1995, following five years in Atlanta as director of scouting and player development and then assistant general manager for player personnel. With the Braves, LaMar helped oversee a minor league system that national publications repeatedly ranked No. 1, and he helped implement baseball's first minority intern program in the areas of scouting and player development. With Tampa Bay in 1996, he established the Career Initiative Program, which promotes diversity by exposing members of minority groups to the player development, scouting and conditioning aspects of baseball.

RAYS IN THE COMMUNITY

The mission of the Rays of Hope Foundation is to assist the agencies and charitable causes dedicated to the education and welfare of the citizens of the Tampa Bay area, particularly children.

In 2003, the Devil Rays provided in-kind donations to more than 800 Tampa Bay area charities and topped $1 million in charitable giving for the sixth straight year.

Much of that charity was conducted through the Rays of Hope Foundation. The Foundation donated $10,000 each to the RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities) Programs in Tampa and St. Petersburg and made similar donations to the foundation's four designated charities: St. Petersburg YMCA, the Pinellas Education Foundation, Hillsborough Education and the Children's Home Society.

In December, the Rays and the City of Tampa announced a plan to partner with Lowe's Home Centers, Inc. and Little League Baseball International to renovate and repair the Belmont Heights Little League baseball fields in Tampa. The Rays provided their grounds crew staff and expertise to donate time and resources along with a cash donation of $10,000. The fields were ready in time for the season opening ceremonies in February and Rays Outfielder Carl Crawford was on hand to throw out the first pitch.

*Players from the Belmont Heights Little League are surrounded by Ed Johnson from the City of Tampa, Stephen Keener, President &CEO, Little League Baseball International, Tampa Mayor Pam Iorio, Ann Jenkins, President of Belmont Heights Little League and Devil Rays Managing General Partner Vincent J. Centerplate, the Rays' concessionaire, once again saw to it that local charities were given the opportunity to raise money at Devil Rays home games by manning the concession stands, a program that has brought approximately $4.1 million to Tampa Bay area charitable organizations in the Rays' six years. That figure was approximately $500,000 in 2003.

The Rays hosted their third "Grand Slam Gala" in March to benefit the Rays of Hope Foundation. Attended by all Rays players and coaches, the event raised more than $30,000.

The Rays "Shirts Off Our Back" promotion in which fans buy chances to win the game-worn uniforms tops of each player following the last home game of the season, has brought the Muscular Dystrophy Association more than $90,000 the past six seasons. The Rays organization has gladly donated the uniforms for such a cause and will do so again in 2004 at "Shirts Off Our Back" Day on September 29 vs. Boston.

The Rays community relations caravans made more than 25 stops in the Tampa Bay area the week of January 31-February 8. Rays players, broadcasters, front office staff and Raymond visited fans throughout the region at locations such as the Lakeland Medical Center, Shriner's Hospital in Tampa, MacDill Air Force Base, St. Anthony's Hospital in St. Petersburg, Venice High School and hosted luncheons for the Chambers of Commerce in St. Petersburg, Tampa and

In 2001, the Devil Rays initiated the Tony Saunders Courage Award given annually to a local student/athlete who best exemplifies the courage, character, competitive desire and fighting spirit of the former Devil Rays pitcher. Student/athletes who have either demonstrated extraordinary effort or excelled in their sport while overcoming any form of adversity merit consideration. The winner receives a $2,500 scholarship from the Rays of Hope Foundation. Last year's winner was Seminole High School basketball player Beth Taylor.

The Devil Rays Wives presented a check for $45,000 to the ALS Association (Lou Gehrig's disease), the proceeds from their annual celebrity dinner where Devil Rays players served as waiters. The event has raised approximately $268,000 in five years.

The Chuck LaMar Mercury Marine Grand Slam Celebrity Fishing Tournament held for the past six years in St. Petersburg has raised more than $750,000 for the Tampa-based Pediatric Cancer Foundation. LaMar has been involved in a number of other local charities including the YMCA, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Tampa Bay, Clearwater for Youth and the Children's Dream Fund.

There were many other community projects in which the Rays were involved in last season. The team hosted its annual Thanksgiving dinner for the needy serving over 300 meals and a holiday party for 120 children from the Boys and Girls Clubs of Tampa Bay at Gameworks in Ybor City. At every Tuesday home game, the Rays host a youngster from either the Make-A-Wish Foundation or the Children's Dream Fund. That youngster serves as honorary bat boy and meets the Rays players and coaches prior to the game.

During the season, the Rays and Cuesta-Rey Cigars hosted their annual fundraiser at J.C. Newman's Cuesta-Rey Cigar Bar to benefit A Brighter Community. The event has raised more than $26,000 over the past six years.

gram this year in Piniellas County. Hillsborough County will also join the program this year. Co-sponsored by Fox Sports Net, Reading is Cool is designed to promote literacy while reinforcing the character traits endorsed by the Pinellas and Hillsborough County School systems. A videotaped series of children's books read by Rays players will be provided to each elementary school accompanied by posters for each classroom in the school system. In conjunction with the program, the Rays of Hope Foundation will sponsor an essay contest for fourth, fifth and sixth graders in both counties. The winning students, and their teachers will win numerous prizes.

On June 30, the Second Annual Rays of Hope Charity Golf Classic took place at the Fox Hollow Golf Club. Rays players, coaches, broadcasters and former Rays participated in the event which netted approximately $20,000 for the Rays of Hope Foundation.

The Rays will host the RBI Regional Tournament at Tropicana Field. Teams from Puerto Rico, South Florida, Tampa and Piniellas County will compete to advance to the RBI World Series in Houston, August 6-13.

RBI stands for Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities. It is a grassroots outreach program designed to promote interest in baseball, increase the self-esteem of disadvantaged children and encourage kids to stay in school. Managed by Major League Baseball in partnership with the Boys and Girls Clubs of America and Rawlings Sporting Goods, the 2001 RBI program reached over 120,000 youth playing in 160 cities worldwide. The Rays have sponsored leagues in Tampa and St. Petersburg since 1997.

During the 2003 season, Florida Blood Services held nine game-day blood drives at Tropicana Field. Rays pitcher Victor Zambrano recorded a PSA for Florida Blood Services in English and Spanish. Devil Rays investors, season ticket holders and the Rays of Hope Foundation teamed up in 2003 to send 8,000 deserving youngsters to Rays games. ## DIRT BASEPATHS

Tropicana Field is the first major league park in more than 20 years to feature artificial turf and dirt base paths. The three other current major league parks with artificial turf have only dirt cutouts around the bases and at the pitcher's mound. Only four other artificial turf stadia have ever featured dirt base paths: Houston's Astrodome (1966-71); San Francisco's Candlestick Park in 1971, Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium in the early '70s and the most recent, St. Louis' Busch Stadium (1970-76). Chicago's Comiskey Park had dirt basepaths with an Astroturf infield and grass outfield in the early '70s.

TONY SAUNDERS COURAGE AWARD

The Tony Saunders Courage Award, created in 2000, is given annually to a local student/athlete who best exemplifies the courage, character, competitive desire and fighting spirit of the former Rays pitcher.

Student/athletes who have either demonstrated extraordinary effort or excelled in their sport while overcoming any form of adversity merit consideration.

The winner receives a $2,500 scholarship from the Rays of Hope Foundation, the charitable foundation of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays.

Saunders, who pitched for the Rays in 1998 and 1999, broke the humerus bone in his pitching arm on May 26, 1999 while throwing a pitch for the Rays against the Texas Rangers at Tropicana Field. He made a valiant comeback attempt in 2000, but his courageous effort ended August 24 when the 26-year-old suffered a fracture of the same bone while pitching on a rehabilitation assignment for the Class A Florida State League St. Petersburg Devil Rays.

Batting Average – H/AB: Hits divided by at-bats.

Slugging Percentage – TB/AB: Total number of bases divided by at-bats (single = 1 base, double = 2 bases, triple = 3 bases, home run = 4 bases).

Fielding Averge – (PO+A)/(PO+A+E): Putouts plus assists divided by total chances (putouts plus assists plus errors).

On-Base Percentage – (H+BB+HBP)/(AB+BB+HBP+SF): Hits plus walks plus hit-by-pitch divided by at-bats plus walks plus hit-by-pitch plus sacrifice flies.

Win-Loss Percentage: Number of games won divided by total games played.

Magic Numbers: Compute the number of games remaining, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

WHAT IS A DEVIL RAY?

Tampa Bay was granted a major league franchise on March 9, 1995. During the weeks surrounding that date, more than 7,000 suggested names were submitted by the people of Tampa Bay. Suggestions included such creative choices as Fruit Blossoms, Pteradactyls, Bigfeet, Backcrackers, Snowbirds and Toads.

The largest percentage of those suggestions included the name "Rays," an order of large, graceful fish that live primarily in the tropical waters off Florida's coast.

In a subsequent telephone contest in which more than 70,000 calls were received from Tampa Bay area residents, "Devil Rays" won out over "Manta Rays." Both names are actually used to describe the same fish. Devil Rays are the largest member of the Ray family measuring up to 23 feet long and weighing as much as 2,400 pounds. They are found in Florida waters: the Gulf of Mexico and along the Atlantic Coasts of the southern United States. They are massive, but gentle creatures, harmless to humans. The Devil Ray gets its name from the cephalic fins on the head that look like devil's horns. Although they are quite large, Devil Rays are known to leap from the water and can sail up to 20 feet in the air. Females of the species actually lay their eggs in flight and their offspring are known as "Pup Rays." Devil Rays are virtually impossible to keep in captivity.

ALL-STAR BALLOTING

Since the first All-Star Game in 1933, selection of the All-Stars has shifted from fans to managers on several occasions. In 1933 and 1934, selection of the All-Star teams was up to the fans, who could vote for the All-Stars through newspaper ads featuring official ballots.

From 1935 to 1946, each league's eight managers selected the participants while the All-Star team managers chose the starters. Balloting for the starting lineups, tabulated by the Associated Press, was returned to the fans from 1947 to 1957. However, a case of ballot stuffing by Cincinnati fans in 1957 prompted Commissioner Ford Frick to make player selection the privilege of managers, players and coaches from 1958 to 1969.

Commissioner Bowie Kuhn returned voting to the fans in 1970. Since then, All-Star Fan Balloting has developed into the largest voter participation program in the U.S. outside state and national elections.

Geremi Segundo Gonzalez (Acosta)

Bats: R Throws: R HT: 6'0" WT: 220
Birthplace: Maracaibo, Venezuela
Residence: Maracaibo, Venezuela
Acquired: Signed as a free agent on November 21, 2002
Tenure: 4 years, 88 days
Contract Status: Signed through 2004

X-Ray Report

Prior to pitching for the Rays in 2003, Jeremi had elbow surgery in August of 1998 (nerve removed) and again in 1999 (Tommy John surgery) and knee surgery (left ACL) in 2000 and was released by the Cubs in March, 2001.

2003 Season

- Returned to the big leagues after nearly a five-year absence and was the Rays' most consistent starter with 16 quality starts...His 156.1 innings were a career high... Was 5.2 innings shy of qualifying among the league ERA leaders...Would have finished tied with Roger Clemens for the 15th best ERA in the AL with a 3.91 mark.
- His .228 opponents batting average would have ranked 4th in the AL behind only Pedro Martinez (.215), Barry Zito (.219) and Tim Hudson (.223)...Righties batted just .220 (62-282), 5th best in the AL... Opponents batted just .209 (27-129) with runners in scoring position, also 5th best in the AL.
- Had the 6th lowest run support among AL starters (Min 150 IP) with the exact same number as his ERA, 3.91 runs per start, lowest in the AL East...Rays scored 3 runs or less in 15 of his 25 starts and 4 runs or less 18 times. In fact, the Rays scored 17 total runs in his 11 losses.
- Allowed 3 runs or less in 17 of his 24 starts and 5 hits or less in 15 starts.
- Five times he left a game with the lead and stood to get a win, but the bullpen failed to hold it for him...Included in those games was June 3 at Wrigley Field when the former Cub opposed Mark Prior and got a no dec. as he left after 6.0 with a 2-1 lead...Cubs came back and got the 3-2 "walk-off" win on a wild pitch from Al Levine...In the first inning of that game he threw the pitch that shattered Sammy Sosa's bat, leading to the "corked bat" incident.
- Posted the 5th best road ERA in the AL with a 3.08 mark (IP-84.2, ER-29), but only won 3 times in 13 starts...10 of his 13 road starts were quality starts...Held opponents to a .193 batting average on the road (58-300)...Included were three masterful games in which he allowed 2 hits or less: a 3-1 win at Anaheim on May 23 for his first major league win since June 28, 1998 (for Chi Cubs over KC, some 1,757 days in between) in which he allowed 2 hits and one run over 6 innings; a 6-inning, 1-hit, 1-run effort at Yankee Stadium in an 11-2 win on June 17 and a 3-2 loss at Florida in his very next start in which he allowed 2 hits and 3 runs over 7 innings.
- Averaged 17.46 pitches per inning, tops in the AL and the 2nd most in the majors among pitchers with 150 or more innings...Only the Mets' Al Leiter had a higher average (17.96).

- Was very consistent...Posted a 3.50 ERA in 3 May starts, then in his four full months with the club his monthly ERA's were 4.00 in June, 4.02 in July, 3.92 in August and 3.94 in September.
- Threw a season-high 8 innings 4 times...Had a pair of combination shutouts in which he worked 8 innings including the Rays first-ever win over Kevin Appier on August 8, when Jeremi and Jesus Colome combined on a 4-hitter to beat KC...Also had two 8-inning complete-game losses: Aug. 3 @ KC and Aug. 31 @ Oakland...In the latter game he became the first pitcher ever to be ejected from a complete game...He was ejected from the dugout in the top of the 9th inning by first base umpire Joe Brinkman.
- After coming to spring training as a non-roster invite, he began the season at AAA Durham...In 7 games, 6 starts at Durham was 1-0 with the International League's 8th best ERA (2.53)...Was promoted from AAA on May 17 and made his TB debut that night at Baltimore, losing 2-0 to Pat Hentgen...worked 7.0 innings and fanned 9, one shy of his career-high 10 April 25, 1998, at Dodger Stadium...rest of his line: 5-H, 2-R/ER, 2-BB...Was his first major league app. in nearly 5 years, 1,758 days in between - since July 24, 1998 for the Cubs.
- Went 0-6 over his last 7 starts since his last win Aug. 19 @ BAL...Had 4 quality starts over that stretch and only once did he allow more than 4 earned runs, but the Rays scored a total of 14 runs in those 7 starts and his last 4 starts came against Roy Halladay, Pedro Martinez-twice, and Roger Clemens...Over the last 2 months he posted a 3.92 ERA, but was 2-7 including 0-4 in September when he worked to a 3.94 ERA.

2002

- Went to major league spring training with the Rangers, but spent the entire season with AAA Oklahoma City where he led the club with 14 saves and was 2nd with 46 appearances.
- Started the season in the starting rotation, but moved to the bullpen in mid-May and immediately went 2-0 with 3 saves in his first 5 appearances...Finished with season with a 2.20 ERA (IP-65.1, H-54, ER-16) in 41 relief appearances.
- Did not allow a run in his last 13 appearances (IP-13.2, H-6, SO-21, SV-3) including his final 11 regular season games...Including post-season, he didn't allow an earned run in 20 of his last 23 appearances.
- His win on April 22 at Nashville (Pirates) was his first win as a pro since June 28, 1998 at Kansas City for the Cubs...Fanned a season high 9 batters and walked none...Twice worked a season-high 7 innings including a 2-hit, no-run effort in relief in Oklahoma City's 1-0, 11-inning win over Salt Lake (Angels) on April 18.
- Pitched for Zulia in the Venezuelan Winter League and was dominating: 0.92 ERA, 1-1, SV-6, G-12, IP-19.2, H-13, R-2, ER-2, BB-5, SO-27, Opp. Avg.-.186.

2001

- Pitched for Zulia in Venezuelan winter league, going 1-5, 5.74 in 9 starts...Fanned 46 in 47 innings.

2000

- Missed 1st half of season while continuing recovery from 1999 right elbow surgery...Made 4 starts on rehab assignment at Mesa from July 19-Aug. 2, going 0-1, 2.70...Was transferred to Lansing and started on Aug. 7 at West Michigan...Struck out 1st 2 batters of the game, then left with a strained left side that sidelined him for rest of year.
- Was 1-1, 4.82 in 7 games/6 starts at Zulia in Venezuela.

1999

- Opened season on disabled list while rehabbing from 1998 elbow surgery...Made 8 total rehab starts at Daytona (April 16-22), West Tennessee (April 26-May 8), and Iowa (May 12-18 and 29-31) but continued to experience discomfort...Had reconstructive surgery to repair ulnar collateral ligament on July 2 and missed rest of year.

- Would have been the toughest to strike out in the AL with one every 12.4 plate appearances, but fell 4 plate appearances shy of qualifying...Boston's Todd Walker led the AL at 12.0...Struck out only 21 times in his first 93 games, but 19 in his last 37...Fanned 3 times in a game at Toronto on July 22 (2 vs. Roy Halladay) - just the 2nd time in his career he has struck out three times in a game (also May 25, 2002 at Oakland, 2 vs. Aaron Harang).

- On Aug. 28 he homered in the top of the 9th inning off Seattle's Shigetoshi Hasegawa to give the Rays a 3-2 win...Hasegawa had a 0.75 ERA entering the game...The win came on Lou Piniella's 60th birthday and knocked the Mariners out of first place for good.

- Was one of six major leaguers to play in every game this season, also Miguel Tejada (OAK), Hideki Matsui (NYY), Juan Pierre (FLA), Richie Sexson (MIL) and Orlando Cabrera (MTL)…Has played in a club record 275 consecutive games (since joining Rays May 28, 2002 from AAA)…Is the 2nd longest current streak in the majors behind Oakland's Miguel Tejada's streak of 594.
- Batted .318 vs. left-handed pitching…For the 2nd straight year only one other AL lefty hit for a higher average against southpaws: Ichiro at .359…Batted .333 (64-192) after the 6th inning, 3rd best in the AL behind Garret Anderson (.377) and Vernon Wells (.346)…Batted .336 (87-259) with men on base, tied with Carl Everett for 8th best in the AL…Surprisingly was 0-for-4 with the bases loaded.

- Led Rays with 34 game-tying/go-ahead RBI.
- Hit 7 home runs vs. Toronto, a new club record for most home runs in one season vs. an opponent…Hit 14 HR in his last 37 games including 8 in September, a club record… Had 10 HR in May (tied with E. Martinez, A. Pujols for tops in majors)…Became only the second Devil Ray to hit 10 HR in a month (also Jose Canseco in April 1999)…Had 2 HR May 3 @ DET (both off Adam Bernero), his 2nd career 2-HR game (also July 30, 2002 vs. BAL).

RAYS IN JAPAN

The Rays open the regular season with a pair of games in Tokyo (March 30-31) against the Yankees. The Rays will also face the Hanshin Tigers March 28 and Yomiuri (Tokyo) Giants on March 29. The Rays-Yankees games mark the second time that Major League Baseball has opened the season in that country. In 2000, the Cubs and Mets played two games in the Tokyo Dome, the games were the first in-season games ever held played in Japan and marked the first time that MLB had ever started the season outside of the U.S., Canada or Mexico. The Cubs won the first game, 5-3, and the Mets prevailed in the second game, 5-1 on Benny Agbayani's pinch-hit grand slam in the top of the 11th inning. This year's games are the latest in a series of MLB events in Japan that began in 1908. That year the All-American Team traveled to Japan and went undefeated in 19 games against its Japanese counterparts. Since then, there have been 34 additional tours of Japan by Major League Baseball All-Star teams, Negro League teams and individual Major League teams. Rays Manager Lou Piniella led the Cincinnati Reds goodwill tour to Gifu, Japan in November of 1991. Rays Senior Advisor Don Zimmer played in Japan for the Toei Flyers in 1966 and managed the MLB All-Star team that toured Japan in 1990.

X-Ray Report

Victor is the only Rays player to make it to the big leagues from the organization's first-ever mini-camp, June 3-14, 1996...He is also the only major league Ray to play in the Rays' first minor league game—a Gulf Coast League contest on June 18, 1996.

2003 Season

- Led the Rays staff in wins (12), starts (28), innings pitched (188.1) and strikeouts (132).
- Beat Boston on the last day of the season for his 12th win, 2nd most for one season in club history behind Rolando Arrojo's 14 wins in 1998...Also tied him with Albie Lopez and Esteban Yan for most wins all time in club history (26).
- Led the AL in walks allowed (106), hit batters (20) and wild pitches (15)...In major league history, only two other pitchers have led their leagues in all 3 categories in the same season: Cleveland's George Uhle led the AL in 1926 and Brooklyn's Hal Gregg led the NL in 1944... Surprisingly, Uhle was 27-11 that season with the Indians. Gregg was 9-16 for the Dodgers.

- Is the first AL pitcher to hit 20 batters since California's Tom Murphy in 1969 and just the 2nd in the last 80 years.

MOST HIT BATTERS, LAST 80 YEARS (1924-2003)

|---|---|
| Tom Murphy, California, 1969 | 21 |
| Kerry Wood, Chi-NL, 2003 | 21 |

| Don Drysdale, Los Angeles, 1961 | 20 |
| Jamey Wright, Milwaukee, 2001 | 20 |
| Chan Ho Park, Los Angeles, 2001 | 20 |

- Held opponents to a .237 batting average, 5th lowest in the AL...The only four pitchers harder to hit were Pedro Martinez (.215), Barry Zito (.219), Tim Hudson (.223) and Esteban Loaiza (.233)...Righthanders batted only .206 off him, 3rd best behind Pedro (.179) and Loaiza (.191)...Opponents batted only .129 (4-31) with the bases loaded and only .214 (43-201) with runners in scoring position, 7th best in the league.
- His 188.1 innings pitched are the 7th-highest total in club history... Averaged 16.66 pitches per inning, 7th highest in the AL among pitchers with 150 or more innings...Teammate Jeremi Gonzalez was first (17.46).
- Opened the season as the Rays' no. 2 starter but was optioned to AAA Durham on May 9 after going 1-2 with a 6.29 ERA in 10 apps (5 starts)... Returned May 23 and went 11-8, 4.04 ERA (155-IP, 130-H, 67-ER, 81-BB, 111-SO) in 24 games, 23 starts the rest of the way...2 of his losses were 2-1... Didn't get his first win as a starter until June 4, just his 2nd win of the season.
- Beginning June 1 he was 11-7 with a 3.77 ERA while pitching 145.2 innings...Only 3 AL East pitchers won more games during that span: Andy Pettitte (16), Roy Halladay (16) and Derek Lowe (13) and only 2 pitchers in the division pitched more innings: Halladay (182.2) and Kelvim Escobar (150.1)
- Was 7-4 at Tropicana Field with a 3.56 ERA (IP-93.2, ER-37), 13th best home ERA in the AL.
- Became the 3rd Devil Ray pitcher to lead the AL in walks allowed joining Tanyon Sturtze (89 in 2002) and Tony Saunders (111 in 1998)...Victor's 106 walks were the most by an AL pitcher since Saunders in 1998.
- Made 4 starts against Roger Clemens and was 1-1 while out-pitching the 300-game winner...Victor pitched to a 2.39 ERA and Clemens to a 2.79...On June 18, he and Roger hooked up in one of the best duels of the season which resulted in the longest 1-0 game at Yankee Stadium in 30 years (July 26, 1973) as the Yankees prevailed 1-0 in 12 innings. Roger had a no-hitter into the 8th and Victor a 1-hitter.
- Had 4 starts in which he didn't allow a run but was only 1-0 in those starts...Five of his starts were decided by 1-0 or 2-1 scores and the Rays lost 4 of those games.

pitchers to beat the Red Sox twice at home this season.

- When he allowed a run in the 2nd inning of his start against the Yankees on September 12, it was the first earned run he had ever allowed at Yankee Stadium after 25.2 career innings in the House That Ruth Built.
- On Sept. 7 vs. OAK, pitched the first complete game of his career in an 11-2 win over Oakland and Barry Zito giving the Rays just their second series win ever against the A's (9-IP, 9-H, 2-R/ER, 0-BB, 8-SO)...is the lone time in 39 career starts he did not walk a batter and also matched his career high in strikeouts...finished with 116 pitches – had 75 through the first 7 innings, 41 over the last two...It was only the 2nd time in major league history that two starting pitchers with the last name starting with the letter "Z" have started against each other. The only occasion we were able to find was Sept. 6, 1925, when Boston's Paul Zahniser squared off against Washington's Tom Zachary and the Sox defeated the Nats, 5-3 in Griffith Stadium.
- He was 3-2 in day games with a 3.96 ERA while the rest of the staff was 11-32 with a 5.52 ERA.

- Had all 3 of the Rays Interleague wins going 3-1 (IP-27, ER-9)...Held NL batters to a .178 (16-90) average.
- At 26-20 is one of three pitchers in TB history with 10 or more dec. and a lifetime winning record (Jim Mecir at 14-4 and Lance Carter at 9-5 are the others).
- On March 27 in the second to last spring training game at Jack Russell Stadium in Clearwater, three Rays – Victor, Brandon Backe and Jorge Sosa combined to throw a no-hitter against the Phillies, the first spring training no-hitter since Boston (with Pedro Martinez starting) threw one against Toronto on March 14, 2000.

2002

- Righthander made his first Opening Day roster and appeared in 42 games (11 starts), second most on the staff to Esteban Yan's 55, despite spending a month in AAA.

MAJOR LEAGUE WAIVER RULES

There are four types of waiver requests — major league waivers, special waivers, outright waivers and unconditional release waivers.

Major league waivers are necessary for any player assignment between major league clubs made from August 1 until the day after the close of the regular season. Waivers are not needed for major league assignments during the rest of the year. The trading deadline in which waivers are not needed is July 31.

Special waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor league club from September 1 until the 30th day of the following season.

Outright waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor leauge club from the 31st day of the regular season until August 31.

Unconditional release waivers can be secured at any point during the year.

1-Selected by the Atlanta Braves in the 4th round of the 1999 June Free Agent Draft...signed by Junior Vizcaino
2-Selected by the Tampa Bay Devil Rays from Atlanta in the Rule 5 Draft (3rd overall pick) on December 15, 2003.

Devil Rays and the Rule V Draft

Minor league players who have played three seasons (if they were signed when they were 20) or four seasons (if they were signed when they were 19) that are not on a 40-man major league roster, are eligible to be drafted by other major league clubs in the Rule V Draft held each year at baseball's winter meetings. When a player is drafted, he must remain on the 40-man roster of the team that selects him until the season ends and must spend at last 90 days on the 25-man roster before he can be optioned to the minors without going through waivers. The team from which he as drafted can reclaim him for half of the draft price ($50,000) if he is placed on waivers.

The Devil Rays have been active in the Rule V Draft in five of the six drafts during their existence. In 2002, the Rays became the first team since the 1968 Chicago Cubs to have three Rule 5 players on their opening day roster and the first team since the 1981 Minnesota Twins to have three rule 5 players on their roster at any given time during the season. ## DEVIL RAYS FIRST TO TRAIN AT HOME IN MODERN ERA

The Devil Rays' major league spring training home is Progress Energy Park, Home of Al Lang Field, in St. Petersburg, making the Tampa Bay franchise the first major league team to train in its home city since 1919 when the St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Athletics both trained at home. Between 1943-45, the "War Years," travel restrictions forced teams to alter their routine of heading to warmer weather and some teams trained close to home. Six teams stayed within 100 miles of their home city: Boston Red Sox trained in nearby Medford, 1943-45; Washington Senators trained in a Washington suburb, College Park, MD, 1943-45; Philadelphia Phillies (1944-45) and Athletics (1943) each trained in Wilmington, DE, just 30 miles away; New York Yankees spent 1943 training at the home of Bruce Springsteen, Asbury Park, NJ, some 70 miles from the Big Apple; New York Giants were in Lakewood, NJ, 90 miles away, 1943-45; and the Phillies trained in Hershey, PA in 1943, approximately 100 miles from home.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD, PRESENTED BY JOHN HANCOCK

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Jamie Moyer; Jim Thome; Curt Schilling; Al Leiter; Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

John Hancock Financial Services, a company that has long recognized its obligation to the community, is a proud sponsor of Major League Baseball and the Roberto Clemente Award.

2003 TAMPA BAY DEVIL RAYS SEASON SUMMARY

IMPROVEMENT — Rays' 63 wins were 8 more than 2002, marking the club's greatest improvement from one year to the next ... only Kansas City (+21) had a greater improvement this season in the AL...Toronto also improved by 8 games.

- Rays were just 7 games under .500 after the All-Star Break (31-38, .449) compared to 28 games under in the season's first half (32-60, .348).
- Rays went 24-18 between July 3 and August 19, their best stretch ever of 25+ games...the club's 14-12 July record marked the team's 3rd-best month in club history.
- Rays finished 34-42 against the AL East (.448), their best record versus any division...Rays won 11 games each against Baltimore and Toronto, their most victories ever against one opponent in a single season.

CLOSE CALLS — Rays played 90 games decided by one or two runs (39-51), most by a major league team since 1993 when the Florida Marlins played 95 and the Kansas City Royals played 90 games...Rays also played in an AL-high 51 one-run games (23-28), 6 more than any other AL club and one shy of the club mark (52 in 2000, 26-26).

The Rays played 29 games decided in the 9th inning or later (16-13), 2nd most in the AL behind Boston (31, 18-13)...Tampa Bay also had 19 games decided in "walk-off" fashion, tied with Montreal for the most in the majors...The Rays' 10 "walk-off" wins were 2nd most in the AL behind Oakland (12).

SMALL BALL — Rays finished with a club-record 142 stolen bases, 13 more than any other AL club...Only Florida stole more in the majors with 150...The Rays stole 3rd base 19 times, tied for the major league lead with Seattle and Montreal...The Rays also finished with the 2nd best success rate in the majors (77.1%) behind Oakland (77.4%)...Lou Piniella's teams have finished 1st or 2nd in the AL in steals in each of the last 5 seasons. In the last 25 years, only one other team has led the AL in stolen bases and finished last: 1996 KC Royals...Rays led the majors with 189 infield hits and were 3rd with 35 bunt singles behind Detroit (58) and Florida (46).

CRAWDELLI —Rocco Baldelli (turned 22 Sep 25) and Carl Crawford (turned 22 on August 5) combined for 361 hits...The last time teammates that young combined for as many hits was in 1940 when Boston's Ted Williams (21) and Bobby Doerr (22) combined for 366...Rays went 22-13 when the pair each reached base twice...The two finished 1st (Crawford-55) and 7th (Baldelli-27) in the AL in stolen bases...It is the first time teammates that young have finished in the top 10 in stolen bases and the first time teammates that young have each stolen 25 bases...The two finished 3rd (Crawford-145) and 4th (Baldelli-133) in the AL in singles...They also finished 3rd (Crawford-39) and 4th (Baldelli-30) in the AL in infield hits. They were also the only two outfield teammates with 10+ assists. They were the first 21-year-olds to start in the same outfield on Opening Day since the 1972 Phillies started Greg Luzinski (21) and Mike Anderson (20).

DEFENSE — Over the final 92 games of the season (beginning June 20), the Rays made only 45 errors, the 2nd fewest errors in the AL (behind Seattle-38) and the 4th fewest in the majors (behind Seattle, Florida-36 and St. Louis-44)...The Rays finished the season 6th in the league in fielding, their highest ranking since 1998...The Rays set the club record for most consecutive errorless games with 8 straight, June 20-27.

RAYS YOUNG OUTFIELD JOINS ELITE GROUP — The Rays outfield of Carl Crawford, Rocco Baldelli and Aubrey Huff – with an average age of 23 - combined for 559 hits on the season, most by an outfield trio in the majors...Next were Seattle's outfield of Randy Winn, Ichiro and Mike Cameron and Atlanta's Chipper Jones, Andruw Jones and Gary Sheffield who each combined for 524 hits.

The Rays' trio become only the 3rd outfield in the last 64 years to have all 3 members with 175+ hits...The only other outfields to do it since then were the 1999 Royals: Carlos Beltran, Johnny Damon and Jermaine Dye and 1954 Cardinals: Stan Musial, Wally Moon and Rip Repulski...in modern day history it has happened only 18 times...The Rays three outfielders finished 7th, 8th and 11th in the AL in at-bats: Baldelli-637, Huff- 636 and Crawford-630.

ABOUT THE ROSTER — Rays used 51 players on the season, one shy of the club record (2000)...15 of those were rookies...10 Devil Rays made their major league debut in 2003 and 29 have made their Rays' debut...Rays used 24 pitchers, tying the club mark (also in 2000)...For most of the season, and for the 2nd straight year, the Rays were the youngest team in the majors...Rays ended the season with an average age of 26.85, the youngest team in the AL, 2nd in the majors behind Cincinnati.

DISTINGUISHING MARKS

- The Rays became the first team since the 1972 California Angels to finish last in the AL in walks received and first in walks issued.
- Rays pitchers led the AL in walks allowed (639), hit batters (95) and wild pitches (65)...The last team to lead the AL in all three was the 1981 Toronto Blue Jays
- The Rays out-hit their opponents this season .265 to .264...Only one team in modern major league history lost as many games as the Rays (99) and still out-hit their opponents: the 1954 Orioles lost 100 games and out-hit the opposition .251 to .250...Only 13 other teams have finished last and out-hit their opponents (most recent was the 1996 Angels).
- The Rays broke their own major league record for most hit batters in a season with 95 breaking their mark of 94 set in 2002.
- The Rays grounded into only 108 double plays, a club record and fewest in the AL...Only Cincinnati (102) had fewer in the majors...Not bad for a team that grounded into 8 in one day - in a doubleheader at NY on June 17...It was the most GIDP's for one team in one day since the Blue Jays did it against the Twins in a Aug 29, 1977, doubleheader.
- 60 of the Rays' 63 wins came from pitchers under the age of 30...Reliever Al Levine's 3 wins were the only exceptions.
- Rookies saved or won 38 of the Rays 62 wins (61%).
- Rays pitched to a 4.93 ERA in 2003, down from 5.25 in 2002.
- Rays pinch-hitters led the AL with 30 RBI, 10 more than second-place Toronto...They also led the league in extra base hits (11) and walks (17)...Al Martin drove in an AL high 11 runs as a pinch-hitter.
- Rays hit .265 as a team in 2003, second best in club history...up from .255 in 2002.
- Rays scored 50 more runs than '02 (715 to 665), but finished last in the AL in HRs with 137.

ROCCO! — The Rays' 22-year-old rookie:

- Led all rookies with 184 hits becoming just the 9th AL rookie since World War II to get that many hits in a season.
- Led AL rookies in batting (.289), stolen bases (27), hits (184), multi-hit games (53), and triples (8).
- Only 7 major league rookies since World War II have matched his totals in hits (184), runs (89) and RBI (78): Tony Oliva (Min, 1964), Dick Allen (Phila, 1964), Carlos Beltran (KC, 1999), Nomar Garciaparra (Bos, 1997), Albert Pujols (StL, 2001), Rich Rollins (Minn, 1962) and Vada Pinson (Cin, 1959).
- Led the AL in outfield assists with 14 becoming only the 13th rookie to lead the AL outfield assists and only the 9th in the last 73 years...That list includes Joe (1936) and Dom (1940) DiMaggio.
- Scored or drove in 156 of the Rays' 715 runs - 21.8% (Runs + RBI - HRs)...No other major league rookie produced a higher percentage of his team's runs.

CRAWFORD: 4TH YOUNGEST ALL-TIME — The Rays 22-year-old Carl Crawford led the AL with 55 stolen bases and became the 4th-youngest player ever to win a league stolen base crown behind Ty Cobb (20 yrs, 9 mos, 15 days in 1907), Rickey Henderson (21yrs, 9 months, 10 days in 1980) and Tim Raines (22 years, 0 mos, 17 days in 1981)...Carl ended the season 22 yrs, one month and 23 days...only 2 players in major league history have stolen more bases in a season at a younger age —Raines (1981, 71) and Henderson (1980, 100)...He also is the 6th youngest all-time to steal 50+ bases in a season.

AUBREY HUFF SLUGS WAY TO RAYS TRIPLE CROWN — Rays outfielder Aubrey Huff was selected the Rays' MVP by the Tampa Bay Chapter of the BBWAA.

- His 34 home runs tied the club record (with Jose Canseco in 1999).
- His 107 RBI are most in club history, one more than Fred McGriff had in 2000.
- Finished with a .311 batting average, best single season mark in club history (prev. .310 by McGriff in 1999).
- He and Toronto's Vernon Wells were the only 2 players in the top 10 in all 3 categories in the AL and Gary Sheffield and Albert Pujols were the only NL'ers in the league's top 10 in all 3.
- Only 10 players in ML history (5 in the AL) matched Aubrey Huff's numbers for hits (198), doubles (47), home runs (34) and RBI (107)...That list is Chuck Klein (1930, 1932), Babe Herman (1930), Rogers Hornsby (1929), Lou Gehrig (1927), Todd Helton (2000), Alex Rodriguez (1996), Don Mattingly (1985), Frank Robinson (1962), Albert Belle (1998) and Hank Greenberg (1937).
- Only 5 lefthanded hitters in major league history have reached those same numbers: Chuck Klein (Phil, 1930, 32), Babe Herman (Brklyn, 1930), Lou Gehrig (NYY, 1927), Todd Helton (Col, 2000) and Don Mattingly (NYY, 1985).

ML PLAYERS WITH A .300 BA, 30+ HR AND 100+ RBI IN 2003:

| NAME | BA | HR | RBI | NAME | BA | HR | RBI |

| Ramirez, Manny, Bos | .325 | 37 | 104 | Carlos Delgado, Tor | .302 | 42 | 145 |

CARTER REACHES ROOKIE MILESTONE — Rays rookie Lance Carter finished with 26 saves, becoming the 8th major league rookie – 5th AL rookie – to earn 26 or more saves in a season...Had a save or win in 52.3% of the Rays' 63 wins (26 saves, 7 wins)...Only one rookie has been involved in a greater pct. of his team's wins - St. Louis' Todd Worrell in 1986 (saved or won 45 of the Cards' 79 wins-56.9%)...Lance's combination of wins and saves (33) are T-3rd most all-time...Was also the Rays lone rep at the 74th All-Star Game. At 28 years, 6 months and 29 days, he was 6th oldest rookie to be an All-Star, the 3rd oldest rookie pitcher. ..He and KC's Mike MacDougal became the 13th and 14th rookie pitchers to make the AL All-Star squad, and the 3rd and 4th rookie relievers.

HALL HAS MAJORS' BEST ERASER RATE — Catcher Toby Hall threw out a club-record 41.3% (31 of 75) attempted base stealers – best ratio in the majors. It also established a club record for best throwing pct. breaking the old mark of 38.6% (49 of 127) turned in by John Flaherty in 1999.

Best Throwing Efficiency, Major League Catchers, 2003

| | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Toby Hall, Tampa Bay | 41.3 | 31 of 75 | Paul LoDuca, LA | 34.1 | 43 of 126 |
| Bengie Molina, Anaheim | 40.8 | 31 of 76 | Brad Ausmus, Hou | 31.3 | 31 of 99 |

RAYS SHORTSTOPS AMONG THE MAJORS' MOST PRODUCTIVE — The Rays got 19 home runs, 78 RBI and a .280 batting average from the shortstop position in 2003...only two other clubs in the MAJORS matched each of those numbers from that position: Boston (.300, 29 HR, 108 RBI) and Texas (.294, 46 HR, 117 RBI)...Rays shortstops had hit only 36 home runs in the first 5 seasons combined.

RAY TALES — The Rays defeated the reigning Cy Young Award winner Barry Zito twice and both had some unusual footnotes. On July 8, the Rays defeated Zito and the A's, 9-3, and in the process had 15 hits off the A's lefthander, the most hits off an AL Cy Young Award winner (reigning or otherwise) since June 13, 1988 when the Yankees got 15 hits off Boston's Roger Clemens, the 1986 Cy Young winner. When Victor Zambrano bested Zito on September 7, it was only the 2nd time in major league history that two starting pitchers with the last name starting with the letter "Z" have started against each other. The only occasion we're able to find was September 6, 1925 when Boston's Paul Zahniser squared off against Washington's Tom Zachary and the Sox defeated the Nats, 5-3 in Griffith Stadium...The Rays batted .429 (21-49) off Zito for the season while the rest of the league batted .206....Despite out-hitting their National League opponents, 148-143, the Rays' 3-15 record against the National League was the most Interleague losses by one team in the 7-year history of Interleague play...The Rays came from behind by 3 or more runs 23 times in 2003, but won only 10 times... The Rays finished June with a 5-21 mark, most losses in one month in club history and the most in one month in Lou Piniella's 17-year managerial career. Still, Zambrano set a club record for most wins in June with 4 of the 5 wins...When the Rays were swept by the Marlins, June 20-22, they held the Marlins to 13 hits combined in the 3 games. The last time a team got swept in a 3-game series and allowed so few hits was April 8-10, 1969 when San Diego swept Houston and the Astros allowed only 13 hits. The Marlins beat the Rays 3-1, 2-0 and 3-2 and batted .147....In 2003, the Rays played the longest game in club history (16 innings on April 1 vs. Boston) and the shortest (5 innings at Florida, June 21) and lost them both...On March 27 in the second to last spring training game at Jack Russell Stadium in Clearwater, three Rays – Zambrano, Brandon Backe and Jorge Sosa combined to throw a no-hitter against the Phillies, the first spring training no hitter since Boston (with Pedro Martinez starting) threw one against Toronto on March 14, 2000...The Rays went the first 16 games of the season before getting a win from a starting pitcher. That was the longest such streak to start a season since the 1992 KC Royals went until the 18th game before a starter earned a "W" for Manager Hal McRae...On May 18 at Baltimore, the Rays did not record an assist. It was only the 8th time it has happened in major league history, yet the 2nd one in Devil Rays' history (also May 1, 2002 at Minnesota). No other team has had two no assist games...Rays broadcaster Dewayne Staats called his 4,000 major league game on May 30...The Rays' 1-0, 12-inning loss to the Yankees on June 18 was the longest 1-0 game at Yankee Stadium in 30 years (July 26, 1973)...On June 13 vs. Pittsburgh, Rays Zambrano, Travis Harper, Jesus Colome and Al Levine combined on a 1-hitter, but in the process allowed 11 base runners (BB-8, HBP-3). It was the most base runners in a 1-hitter since June 18, 1977, when the Brewers beat the Angels 4-2 on a one-hitter that featured 11 Angels reaching base...The Rays lost to the Phillies, 7-5, in the annual Hall of Fame Game on June 16, but Ben Grieve won the pre-game home run hitting contest with 13 dingers, most in the 17-year history of the contest. He hit only 34 home runs in 3 seasons with the Rays...On July 1, the Rays defeated Boston, 6-5, in walk-off fashion on a wild pickoff throw by Brandon Lyon. It was the first time a team won in sudden death on a wild pickoff throw since Aug 31, 1995, when the Royals beat the Brewers on a wild pickoff throw by Mike Fetters...On July 5, the Devil Rays and the Yokohama Bay Stars from Japan's Central League signed a 3-year working agreement for the 2003, 2004 and 2005 seasons...On Aug 31 in a 4-3 loss at Oakland, Jeremi Gonzalez became the first pitcher ever to be ejected from a complete game.

Devil Rays in 2001

- The Rays became the first AL team to lose 100 games since the 1996 Detroit Tigers, but went 24-23 starting August 10. During that stretch, the Rays most often used starting lineup had an average age of 25 years: Steve Cox (1B), Brent Abernathy (2B), Chris Gomez (SS), Jared Sandberg (3B), Jason Tyner (LF), Randy Winn (CF), Ben Grieve (RF) and Toby Hall (C). And the starting rotation was Joe Kennedy (22), Nick Bierbrodt (23), Tanyon Sturtze (30), Ryan Rupe (26) and Paul Wilson (28).

2001 AL East Standings

| | W | L | Pct. | GB |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| New York | 95 | 65 | .594 | ------ |
| Boston | 82 | 79 | .509 | 13.5 |
| Toronto | 80 | 82 | .494 | 16.0 |
| Baltimore | 63 | 98 | .391 | 32.5 |
| Tampa Bay | 62 | 100 | .383 | 34.0 |

- The Rays became just the 2nd major league team to throw just one complete game in a season, joining the 1995 Colorado Rockies.
- With the trades of Fred McGriff, Mike DiFelice and Albie Lopez, the Rays became the youngest team in the majors in late July. The Rays played a club record 16 rookies.
- The Rays handed 20-game winner Roger Clemens two of his three losses and were within one out of handing a third defeat. The last time an AL team lost 100 games and defeated a 20-game winner was the 1991 Cleveland Indians who beat Detroit's Bill Gullickson (20-9) twice.
- The Rays went 27-61 during the first half and 35-39 during the 2nd half.

Devil Rays in 1999

- The Devil Rays suffered the most injuries in the major leagues in 1999. The Rays put 18 different players on the disabled list (22 total moves to the DL) after Opening Day. That number doesn't include INF Aaron Ledesma who dislocated his left thumb in the final spring training game and was out until May 12, or Randy Winn who was out from Sept 5 to Oct 2 with a sprained right ankle.
- All told, the 22 in-season moves accounted for 863 days on the DL. Fifteen of the Rays' 25-man Opening Day roster spent time on the disabled list including 8 of the 11 pitchers and four of the five pitchers in the club's season-opening rotation. Of the 13 pitchers who started a game for the Rays in 1999, eight spent time on the DL.
- On May 22, the Rays were 22-20, 2nd best record ever by a 2nd year expansion team, but an injury ridden, 16-day span, May 12-28, left the Rays reeling.

2003 Tampa Bay Devil Rays Minor League Summary

BETTER THAN .500: Including postseason games, Rays teams were 351-350 in 2003.

DOU"BULL": Durham won its second straight Governor's Cup defeating Pawtucket (Boston) three games to none for the International League title. The Bulls became the 10th team in International League history to win back-to-back championships and the first to do so with a sweep in the finals in consecutive years.

PERFECTION: Chad Gaudin tossed the first perfect game in Tampa Bay organization history on July 15 in game one of an Orlando Rays doubleheader against the Jacksonville Suns (LA). In his first start with the Double-A team after a promotion from Class-A Bakersfield, Gaudin struck out nine of the 21 batters he faced in the 1-0 victory. It was just the second perfect game in the Southern League's 128-year history and the first since 1970.

LUCKY #14: Scott Autrey went 14-7 in 2003 setting a new Rays minor league single season record for wins. Autrey began the season 5-0 with a 3.21 ERA in his first seven starts with Charleston. He was one of just eight minor league pitchers to win more than 13 games in 2003 and maintain an ERA below 3.00.

SPEED DEMONS: Rays minor leaguers were ranked in the Top 5 in stolen bases in the California League (Joey Gathright-57), South Atlantic League (B.J. Upton-38) and Appalachian League (Chad Cooper-25, led league)...Four Rays were also ranked in the Top 5 in triples: Jason Smith (Durham-14, led league), Jason Pridie (Charleston-10, led league), Nate Dion (Hudson Valley-10) and Shaun Cumberland (Princeton-5).

TOP BAT: Outfielder Matt Diaz finished 2003 as the Devil Rays' top minor league batter with a .354 average. In fact, only one player in all of minor league baseball bested him – Jeremy Reed of the Birmingham Barons (CWS) at .373.

CLOSING THE DOOR: Durham closer Lee Gardner recorded a career-high and Bulls-record 30 saves in 2003, he has 84 career minor league saves with the Devil Rays, most in organization history. Gardner also set a postseason record with five saves during the Bulls' postseason run. He was one of only seven minor leaguers to record 30+ saves in 2003...Tampa Bay was the only organization in baseball to have four minor leaguers with 20+ saves this season (Gardner-30, Josh Parker-28, Carlos Hines-24 and Joe Yarborough-22).

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR: Joey Gathright was named the California League's 2003 Rookie of the Year becoming the 12th Tampa Bay minor leaguer to win a league's "special" award in the organization's eight-year history:

History of Professional Baseball in Tampa Bay

Although the 1998 Devil Rays played Florida's first regular season major league game outside of Miami, the league's roots in the Tampa Bay Area can be traced back some 90 years. In fact, more major league spring training games have been played in St. Petersburg than in any other city.

Major League Baseball's roots in Tampa Bay can be traced back to 1913 when the Chicago Cubs moved their spring training operation from New Orleans to Tampa. The following year the St. Louis Browns came to St. Petersburg for spring workouts.

Except for the years between 1942 and 1945 when wartime restrictions limited travel for spring training, major league baseball has had a presence in Tampa Bay ever since.

Even during the war years, the area found a way to keep the National Pastime alive. To fill the wartime void, Tampa fashioned the Inter-Social League in 1943. Crowds averaged several thousand in West Tampa and Ybor City to see players that included the fathers of Lou Piniella and Dave Magadan.

Nine teams have trained in St. Petersburg: the Boston Braves (1922-37), St. Louis Cardinals (1938-42; 1946-97), New York Yankees (1925-42; 1946-50; 1952-61), New York Giants (1951), New York Mets (1962-87), Baltimore Orioles (1993-95); St. Louis Browns (1914), Philadelphia Phillies (1915-18) and the Devil Rays.

Tampa has been the spring home of six major league clubs: Chicago Cubs (1913-16), Cincinnati Reds (1931-42; 1946-87), Boston Red Sox (1919), Detroit Tigers (1930), Washington Senators (1920-29), Chicago White Sox (1954-59) and the New York Yankees (1996-).

More than 70 Hall of Famers have trained in Tampa or St. Petersburg alone, not counting dozens of others who spent springs in Sarasota, Clearwater, Bradenton, and Lakeland.

Plant City, Dunedin, and Tarpon Springs have also been spring training hosts bringing the total number of major league teams who trained in Greater Tampa Bay to 19.

The first game between two major league teams in the area took place in 1914, as the Grapefruit League was established, in which teams played a five-week schedule of exhibition games. On March 26 of that year, at Plant Field on the campus of the University of Tampa, the host Chicago Cubs edged the Browns, 3-2, despite making six errors.

The next day, the two teams met at Coffee Pot Bayou in St. Petersburg and the result was the same, a 3-2 Cubs win. James Leslie (Hippo) Vaughn was the winning pitcher for the Cubs as an estimated 4,000 looked on.

Minor League Baseball began in Tampa Bay in 1919, when Tampa became a charter member of the Class D Florida State League. After finishing dead last the first year, Tampa went 89-28 in 1920, a .745 winning percentage, still the best in FSL history. It was that year that the St. Petersburg Saints entered the FSL. By 1922, the Saints had won a FSL crown of their own, the first of eight they would win, most in league history.

The teams from St. Petersburg and Tampa alone have played more than 14,500 minor league games. Add Dunedin, Clearwater and Lakeland and the number soars to 26,500.

Medical Glossary

AC Joint (Acromioclavicular joint): Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abrasion: Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Adhesion: Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Anabolic Steroids: Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormones).

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Arthrogram: X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscopy: A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Bone Scan: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labelled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Bursa: A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimized the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

Cartilage: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan: Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.

Clavicle: The collar bone.

Coccyx: The "tail bone"; a group of four vertebrae that are fused together, located at the terminal end of the spine.

Contusion: An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cyst: Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Dislocation: Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Edema: Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Femur: Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula: Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Grade One Injury: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury: A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury: A severe injury in which tissue has been significant, and in some cases, totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Heat Cramps: Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion: Mild form of shock due to to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke: Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat resulting in death if not cared for.

Hematoma: Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer: Contusion to the iliac crest.

Humerus: Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Inflammation: The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

Labrum (Labrum Glenoidule): The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edged or lip-like structure.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Ligament: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae: Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Lumbosacral: Region of low back comprised of lumbar and sacral spine.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Medial Collateral Ligament: Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.

Meniscus: Crescent-shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." there are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals: Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Metatarsals: Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL): A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles: A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography: Taking of X-rays.

Radius: Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Rotator Cuff: Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

Strain: Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture: A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Subluxation: Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Tendinitis: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon: Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tibia: Larger of the two bones of lower leg and the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

RAYSVISION

"RaysVision" is the entertainment presentation Devil Rays fans experience when they visit Tropicana Field. The RaysVision show, produced by the Event Productions Department, is comprised of four distinct elements: video, matrix, audio and live entertainment.

Situated in right field at the Trop is a Mitsubishi Mark IIIHB Diamond Vision screen measuring 24' x 32'. Installed in 1998, this crisp and colorful video display showcases a multitude of in-game entertainment, flashy graphics, music videos, instant replays, interactive quizzes and games, and most importantly, live shots of the fans. In addition to the in-game production, the RaysVision video crew also produces and edits all TBDR television and video projects.

Flanking the RaysVision are two Daktronics monochrome matrix displays, each measuring 16' x 30'. Beyond a simple linescore, these versatile matrix displays present a variety of statistics, updates, messages, graphics, entertaining animations, fan birthdays and special occasions. In 1999 & 2000, the RaysVision matrix show captured the IDEA Golden Matrix Award for Best Overall Matrix Display. These displays are supported by 16 out-of-town scoreboards, 2 lineup displays, and, 4 tier level auxiliary matrix screens. Additionally, a 3.5' x 37' Daktronics green matrix board appears in centerfield. Named after long-time Bay Area baseball supporter Jack Lake, this display is specifically dedicated to presenting current and upcoming Rays community related information.

Tropicana Field's sound system is the original speaker system that was installed with the Florida Suncoast Dome in 1990. It has been supplemented with amplification and distribution equipment since the Devil Rays assumed the management of the facility, along with state-of-the-art digital playback equipment.

In addition to playing the variety of music, effects and announcements at a Devil Rays game, all Rays promotional radio commercials are recorded and edited in our audio control room.

At each game since the Rays first took the field on March 31, 1998, our fans have been treated to a live performance of the National Anthem(s). In keeping with our community spirit, many of these performances have been by local talent. The first ever performance of the Anthem was delivered by Ms. Belinda Womack, accompanied by a 75-person choir that consisted of members from three churches that were relocated when construction began on The Florida Suncoast Dome in the late 1980s.

Additionally, our Nation's colors are presented at each event by a local honor guard from a variety of groups including the U.S. Armed Forces, U.S. Coast Guard, college and high school ROTC units, veteran and civic associations, fire and police departments and the Boy and Girl Scouts of America.

At every game, many young fans are surprised on the spot and invited to: present the first game ball, deliver a surprise ceremonial first pitch, take the field to dance with Raymond, take part in many interactive contests, or even sing "Take Me Out To The Ballgame."

Since 2002, the RaysVision department has developed, designed and produced the team's advertising campaign completely in-house. This graphics unit is also responsible for most of the design and print projects as they pertain to the team and the facility. (Starting with the 2003 postseason edition, RaysVision has taken on production of the team's media guides.)

Tropicana Field

Tropicana Field, home of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, closed its doors in October 1996 for a 17-month, $85 million facelift that transformed the facility from functional to intriguingly innovative, incorporating baseball traditions throughout the dining, shopping and entertainment complex while adding 319,000 square feet of space.

Originally named the Florida Suncoast Dome and then the ThunderDome, Tropicana Field's 1.1 million square feet include unique design features and fan amenities found nowhere else in the major leagues.

- Tropicana Field is the first major league park in more than 20 years to feature artificial turf and all-dirt base paths. It features the new natural look FieldTurf (see below). Only four other artificial turf ballparks have ever featured all-dirt base paths: Houston's Astrodome (1966–1971); San Francisco's Candlestick Park in 1971; Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium in the early '70s; and, most recently, St. Louis' Busch Stadium (1970–1976). Chicago's Comiskey Park had all-dirt base paths with an artificial turf infield and grass outfield in the early '70s.
- Tropicana Field became the first major league baseball facility to install FieldTurf. In March 2000, the revolutionary new synthetic grass, FieldTurf was installed at Tropicana Field and on April 7 the first professional baseball game was played on the new surface when the Rays hosted the Cleveland Indians in their home opener. FieldTurf combines blades of artificial grass with a specially patented infill mixture of sand and ground rubber. The ground rubber is a recycled material made from NIKE. The infill surrounds each FieldTurf fibre like natural earth holds a blade of grass and provides a non-compactible, resilient, natural earth feel.
- In keeping with baseball's traditions, the bullpens were relocated after the 1998 season to the field, giving fans a clear view of activity before and during games. The Devil Rays bullpen is located along the right field line, while the visitors bullpen is located along the left field line.
- Ebbets Field was an influence for Tropicana Field in two ways—one by coincidence, the other by design. Tropicana Field's asymmetrical outfield dimensions closely follow those of the Brooklyn Dodgers' old home, a fact that became evident only after those measurements had been determined. Conversely, Tropicana Field's grand, eight-story-high rotunda entrance is designed from the very blueprints used for the rotunda at Ebbets Field, built in 1913.
- Fans can enter the rotunda by following a 900-foot, tropical-theme, ceramic mosaic walkway. Called SunSations, The Progress Energy Walkway is the largest outdoor ceramic mural in Florida and one of the five largest in the United States. Made with 1,849,091 brightly colored 1x1-inch tiles, it depicts the sun, sea and beach.
- Tropicana Field features the world's second-largest cable-supported domed roof (Georgia Dome is the largest). It's made of six acres of translucent, Teflon-coated fiberglass and it virtually supports itself with 180 miles of cables connected by struts. Opposing forces of tension and compression keep the roof in an arc. Tropicana Field's roof is slanted at a 6.5 degree angle, dropping from 225 feet above second base to 85 feet at the center field wall. The slanted roof reduced the overall construction costs and decreased the volume of air under the dome by 16.8 million cubic feet. Accordingly, that reduced the amount of air that requires climate control treatment. It is built to withstand wind of up to 115 miles per hour.

Tropicana Field History

The original Florida Suncoast Dome was opened to the public on March 3, 1990, at a cost of $138 million. It became the ThunderDome in 1993 with the arrival of the area's National Hockey League expansion franchise, the Tampa Bay Lightning. It was renamed Tropicana Field on Oct. 4, 1996.

The facility has set attendance records in a number of sports. During their three seasons playing in the building, the Lightning established the then-top 20 attendance marks in NHL history. On April 23, 1996, a crowd of 28,183 attended Game Four of the Eastern Conference Quarterfinals between the Lightning and the Philadelphia Flyers—the largest indoor single-game attendance figure in NHL history.

The Arena Football League's Tampa Bay Storm set all its records while playing in the facility, including the largest single-game record of 28,746. In 1990, Davis Cup tennis was played at the dome, with a record crowd of 53,150 attending the three-day event. Also in 1990, 25,710 NBA fans saw the Chicago Bulls play an exhibition game against the Seattle Supersonics in what was then the largest crowd ever to attend a basketball game in the state of Florida. That figure was surpassed first by the 26,102 who attended the 1994 first-round NCAA Regionals, then again on March 20 and 22, 1998, when sellout crowds of 40,589—a record for a non-Final Four game— watched the NCAA Regional and semifinal games featuring Syracuse, UCLA, Duke and Kentucky. The 1999 Final Four, featuring Duke, Ohio State, Michigan State and eventual-champion Connecticut, drew capacity crowds of 40,632 and 39,113 on March 27 and 29. The largest crowd to date—47,150—appeared at the Aug. 11, 1990, concert featuring The New Kids on the Block.

Playing Surface:

FieldTurf combines blades of artificial grass with a specially patented infill mixture of sand and ground rubber. The ground rubber is a recycled material made from NIKE. It took 500 tons of clay shipped in from Tennessee to build the base paths. Called "Mar Mix," the infield dirt is a carefully blended mixture of 54 percent sand, 32 percent clay and 14 percent silt. Another type of clay, Blue Gumbo, is used for the pitcher's mound and batter's box.
